Further information

Registration is binding. If you are still unable to take part at short notice, please cancel your booking by contacting Montafon Tourismus on +43 50 6686 or info@montafon.at so that another guest can take your place. Our hikes are organised by trained Montafon hiking guides.

Refund in case of cancellation by the customer: We ask for your understanding that a 5% cancellation fee will be retained in the event of cancellation of tours booked for a fee.

Important note: Our BergePLUS tours take place from 3 registered persons. The regular registration deadline is always the day before at 19:00. However, if the minimum number of 3 people has not been reached by 15:00 on the same day, the tour in question will be automatically cancelled and registration will no longer be possible. In this case, guests who have already booked will of course be informed by us. An exception to this rule is the children's programme - this takes place with one or more children.

Our guide grew up in the area and clearly loved her region. Having a guide gives you a download of so much local information and shares the inside knowledge you can't gain as a tourist in the area for a week. We walked paths we wouldn't have explored solo, we ate wonderful Apple strudel and had great chats on the way around.
