Directions

The starting point for this dreamlike panoramic route is the Lünerseebahn / Douglass Hut mountain station. Keep left, the path leads over the terrace of the Douglass Hut and crosses the dam. At the end of the dam, the path branches off. Walk a little downhill and follow the narrow path along the bottom of the Schafgafall. The narrow path initially is level and shortly after gains elevation. You will then reach the saddle. You see a hollow to the east; at it, keep left. From the saddle, it goes steeply uphill with some challenging rock passages to the peak of Saulakopf. The descent initially follows the same route. However, then keep left towards Heinrich Hueter Hut. Shortly after, turn towards Gipsköpfl or Lünérkrinne. From Lünérkrinne, turn away from Montafon and shortly after reach the Lünérsee, as well as the mountain station and the Douglass Hut.
