Montafon hut circuit | Lindauer Hut to Totalp Hut

MODERATE | ALPENMOSAIK - RÄTIKON | ALPENMOSAIK | REFRESHMENT STOPS

Tour description

An impressive high-altitude hike through the Rätikon mountains, past the striking Three Towers and the Swiss Gate to the turquoise-blue Lünersee and on to the Totalphütte.

This stage takes you through the high-alpine landscape of the Rätikon and offers breathtaking views of the striking limestone formations around the Drei Türme and Drusenfluh. The Schweizer Tor and the Kirchlispitzen are special geological and mountaineering highlights along the route.

As you descend from the Verajoch, the Lünersee comes into view. The turquoise-colored mountain lake provides a striking contrast to the rugged mountain landscape of the Rätikon before the final ascent to the Totalphütte begins.

What is the Montafon Alpine Mosaic?

The Alpenmosaik Montafon brings the region's scenic diversity to life. The four exploration areas—Verwall, Silvretta, Rätikon, and the valley—offer different perspectives on nature, the landscape, and culture.

You can find more information about the Montafon Alpine Mosaic HERE.

Route Description
From the Lindauer Hütte, the trail first takes you to the nearby Sporaalpe. At the foot of the limestone peaks Drei Türme and Drusenfluh, the trail continues toward Lünersee. After climbing about 450 meters in elevation—or about 1.5 hours—you'll reach the Öfen Pass. About 30 minutes later, you'll reach the Schweizer Tor with its old customs house. To the right of it lie the Kirchlispitzen, which are well-known among sport climbers.

The trail then leads uphill again to the Verajoch at 2,323 meters. During the descent, a view of Lünersee soon opens up. At the Lünersee-Alpe, turn left and follow the trail. After about 500 meters, past a mountain stream, the final ascent to the Totalphütte begins. From the Lünersee-Alpe, you'll reach the hut in about 1.5 hours.
